Dear Vagabond Girl:

No grass growin' 'neath your feet, that's for sure. Vancouver--Lew-zi-anna--Vermont (and probably lots of other places in between) in one summer. Sometimes, you must wake up in the morning and not be too sure just where you are.

Intensive get organized/straighten up campaign now going on at the Historical Society! I'm making good progress.

Not too sure just where Summer went, but it went somewhere.
September and October are beautiful, but it's a long push from the end of October to early March.

I'm very pleased that you and Oscar saw the parade last month. He looked like he was enjoying the experience (as you were). He'll remember that experience for the rest of his life.

Best,

Jean-Pierre
